

Mark Price to Lead HealthCare Partners Operations in Colorado

DENVER, Aug. 12, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- DaVita HealthCare Partners (NYSE: DVA), one of the largest and most innovative health care communities, today announced it has named Mark Price as president for its HealthCare Partners Colorado market.

"Mark Price is a talented addition to the HealthCare Partners team in Colorado," said Joe Mello, chief operating officer for HealthCare Partners. "Mark's leadership will be a great advantage in growing the FullWell joint venture and business development throughout the Colorado market."

Price previously worked for ChenMed where he led their Management Services Organization, Practice Management Resources (PMR) division. PMR provides management services, technology, and support for physician groups to help them succeed in a "value-based" delivery model, with PMR taking financial risk on the performance of the practices it partners with. Price helped PMR grow in recent years from Florida into three additional states.

Prior to ChenMed, Price was a manager at Bain & Company where he helped clients with strategic, operational and organizational challenges. Earlier in his career, he was a process engineer at Eli Lilly.

"HealthCare Partners is uniquely positioned to drive meaningful improvement in the delivery of health care in America given its expertise in coordinated care, scalable business model and commitment to maintaining a physician led approach as it grows," said Mark Price, president of HealthCare Partners' Colorado market. "I'm excited to play a role in that important effort."

Price holds a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from the University of Notre Dame, an MBA from Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management and a master's degree in engineering from Northwestern University.
