HealthCare Partners to Acquire Magan Medical Clinic

Leading Multispecialty Clinic Reaches Agreement to Join HealthCare Partners, a DaVita Medical Group

EL SEGUNDO, Calif., June 1, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- HealthCare Partners, a DaVita Medical Group and division of DaVita Inc. (NYSE: DVA), and Magan Medical Clinic, a respected multispecialty medical group in Los Angeles County's San Gabriel Valley, today announced that they entered into a definitive agreement by which Magan will join HealthCare Partners. Financial terms were not disclosed.

"In its nearly hundred-year history, Magan Medical Clinic has demonstrated strong clinical performance and a commitment to patient-centered care," said Jim Rechtin, California market president for HealthCare Partners and senior vice president of corporate strategy for DaVita Inc. "For 25 of those years, HealthCare Partners has worked closely with Magan through a joint venture providing integrated care services. We're excited to join forces and look forward to the possibilities of growing membership and continuing to provide high-quality care to this area together."

Magan Medical Clinic's 55 providers serve more than 20,000 managed care patients. The medical group offers primary care as well as a wide range of specialty care services including cardiology, dermatology, endocrinology, neurology and oncology.

"Over multiple generations, Magan Medical Clinic has been proud to serve the communities of Covina, West Covina, San Dimas, Diamond Bar and La Verne," said Dr. Bradley Rosenberg, president of Magan Medical Clinic. "We chose to join HealthCare Partners, part of the nationally renowned DaVita Medical Group, so that together we could achieve even better care for generations to come. This is an exciting step in our growth and our mission to provide great patient care."

The transaction is expected to close by mid-2017 subject to completion of due diligence and other customary closing conditions.
