

DaVita Reports on 2018 Corporate Social Responsibility Initiatives

Company highlights achievements in patient care, community growth and sustainability

DENVER, May 15, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- DaVita Inc. (NYSE: DVA), a leading provider of kidney care services in the United States, today released its annual Community Care report, highlighting its 2018 clinical and community-building achievements.

"The foundation of what we do is about caring for our patients, each other and the world," said Javier Rodriguez, CEO for DaVita Kidney Care. "We have and will continue to push and innovate to deliver better care, a better experience for our teammates and a healthier world."

Highlights from the report include:

Caring for Our Patients

- DaVita's home dialysis program celebrated its highest-growth year ever, supporting more than 25,000 patients—the largest population of home dialysis patients in the U.S.
- DaVita teamed up with hospitals in San Antonio and Chicago to launch the Transplant Waitlist Support Program, which set new standards in care and data accuracy to help patients stay transplant-ready as they await a kidney.
- Hospital readmissions for DaVita ESRD Seamless Care Organizations patients were reduced by 13%, resulting in a collective 2,700 more days at home for these patients.

Caring for Each Other

- DaVita was recognized on the 2018 Bloomberg Gender-Equality Index. Overall, women represent 77% of DaVita teammates, 74% of middle managers and 46% of its senior management team.
- More than 18,400 teammates participated in education and career development programs. Additionally, teammates received 378,000 hours of continuing education through DaVita's training programs.
- To improve their health, 5,500 teammates and spouses sought out support from DaVita's onsite and virtual health coach teams.

Caring for Our World

- Bridge of Life, an independent, nonprofit organization founded by DaVita, completed 24 international medical missions in 12 countries and nine domestic events with the support of 153 volunteers, impacting more than 7,800 lives.
- DaVita donated more than $1.75 million to Denver-area nonprofits and provided teammates the opportunity to get involved with community service projects.
- DaVita opened its second headquarters building in Denver, with sustainable features including low-flow fixtures, daylighting and LED lighting.
